

How to Get Personal Property Coverage

Supplement the RIM program with a separate Personal Property policy from Worth Avenue Group!

1. Click: Visit their website
<https://www.worthavegroup.com/portal/alta>.

2. Choose: Determine a product and coverage amount. Plans cover claims ranging from $2,000-$10,000.

3. Purchase: Get Apartment Plus insurance to protect your personal property!

Contact Us

Phone: (855) 350-1094

Email: info@residentindemnity.com

More Information

If you have personal liability insurance and would like to use your policy to opt out of the RIM program, visit www.residentindemnity.com.

*Some insurance providers such as eRenters and ResidentInsure do not meet the requirements to opt out of RIM.

Additional resources

Visit www.residentindemnity.com for FAQs

Be Protected with RIM

What is RIM?

Convenient Coverage

It's easy to get started! Your apartment is automatically enrolled in the RIM program when you sign your lease addendum.

All roommates on the lease are covered by the RIM program, and the RIM fee is charged along with rent.

Not for Personal Contents

The RIM program is not insurance and does not provide coverage for personal property, personal liability or any other claim or loss made by third parties, including other residents.

$100,000
PERSONAL
LIABILITY
COVERAGE
FOR ONLY
$9/MONTH

EASY ENROLLMENT AND RENEWAL

Everything You Need to Know

Being enrolled in the RIM program protects you from liability for accidental fire, water or smoke damage to the apartment buildings and/ or community. Intentional actions or gross negligence do not apply.

Our program does not provide protection for personal property, personal liability, or any other claim or loss made by third parties, including other residents. Please review your Lease Indemnification Addendum and the FAQs at www.residentindemnity.com to understand exactly what is covered.