Break Out the Bangles

Use jewelry to give yourself a fresh, modern appearance. Try wearing a grouping of bracelets and rings instead of singles. Stacks of matching, similar or totally mismatched rings and bracelets add personality and a contemporary look to your hands and wrists.

Pay Attention

One way to enhance your ability to learn and remember is to pay close attention. You must learn something before you can remember it, and you won't learn something if you don't pay enough attention to it. It takes about eight seconds of focus to process a piece of information into your memory.

"This Month In History" MAY

1776: Rhode Island becomes the first colony to claim its independence from Britain.

1862: In the French-Mexican War, the Mexican army, led by Ignacio Zaragoza, defeats the larger and better-supplied army of the French. This date, the fifth of May, is commonly celebrated as Cinco de Mayo.

1883: Linking Manhattan to Brooklyn, the Brooklyn Bridge opens for travel.

1911: The first Indianapolis 500, often referred to as the Indy 500, is held. Ray Harroun is the winner.

1933: President Franklin Roosevelt signs the Tennessee Valley Authority Act, a plan to provide navigation, flood control, electricity generation and economic development in the region.

1940: John Steinbeck is awarded the Pulitzer Prize for "The Grapes of Wrath."

1941: Considered by many as one of the best films ever made, "Citizen Kane" premieres at the RKO Palace Theater.

1959: The first Grammy Awards ceremony is held. Winners include Ella Fitzgerald and Perry Como.

1963: One of the most popular men to play the role, Sean Connery appears as James Bond for the first time in the film "Dr. No."

1979: Margaret Thatcher is sworn in as the first female British prime minister.

1999: Soap opera actress Susan Lucci wins her first Emmy after 19 nominations.

2005: Mark Felt reveals himself to be "Deep Throat," Bob Woodward's secret informant in the Watergate scandal.
