Found It!

WomansDay.com suggests establishing a lost and found for your home. "Use a cute vintage lunch box or lidded storage container to stash lost game pieces, stray screws and buttons, and similar small items," the site says. When you realize you need an item, you will know exactly where to look first.

Sensible Shopping

Shop smart during post-holiday sales. Look for items you would normally use but with holiday packaging; they'll be marked down significantly. Scout for returned merchandise offering extra savings. Think ahead to upcoming birthdays, and look for discounted items you can buy now and give later.
