No More Excuses

A lot of times, you may not feel like exercising early in the morning or after a busy day. So make a bargain with yourself: Work out for 15 minutes, and if you're still resisting the effort, you can stop for the day. It's likely that those 15 minutes will get your mind and body charged up and ready to keep going.

Battery Box

A plastic fishing tackle box is great for storing batteries. Use the individual compartments to separate batteries by size.

Fresh Fabrics

Sprinkle a little baking soda on dirty clothes to keep the hamper smelling fresh; this also softens the clothes when washed.
