

SYNCO Properties Returns to the Triangle Market with Northwoods Townhomes Appointment

CARY, North Carolina – May 21, 2015

SYNCO Properties, Inc. of Charlotte, North Carolina has announced its appointment by its new New York based owner as the property manager of Northwoods Townhomes, a 137 unit property in Cary, North Carolina.

The property offers one, two and three bedroom townhome and garden style apartments. All of the over-sized apartment homes have washer/dryer connections and private entrances. Extensive community amenities include an Olympic-sized pool, state-of-the-art fitness and wellness center, lighted tennis courts, sand volleyball court, and an outdoor kitchen area featuring a fireplace, grills and gathering area.

Northwoods Townhomes is conveniently located in the middle of Cary, close to area shopping, dining and entertainment, as well as downtown, and within a short driving distance of I-40.

“We are enthusiastic to be entering the Triangle market once again. We hope to grow our business in this region and Cary is a great place to start”, says Michelle Sanger, Director of Apartment Operations for SYNCO Properties.

SYNCO Properties, Inc. is a private real estate company founded in 1971 and headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina. Its wholly-owned property management subsidiary, SYNCO Property Management, Inc. manages 4,100 apartment units in North and South Carolina.
